Subi Sethi Joins Clearwater as Chief Client Officer

BOISE, Idaho — February 18, 2020 — Clearwater Analytics announced today that Subi Sethi has joined Clearwater as Chief Client Officer to lead the firm's global operations team.

Subi has extensive experience driving operational transformation to deliver highly scalable solutions for global companies. She will be responsible for ensuring the success of Clearwater clientele, and will lead the company's Global Delivery, Data, Reconciliation, Client Services, and Strategic Account Management teams.

Prior to Clearwater, Subi led the end-to-end operations at UnitedHealth Group's Optum Global Solutions, and also worked at Genpact in a variety of leadership roles. Subi has specialized in technology platforms and the intelligent automation space including robotic process automation, visualization, machine learning, and AI applied to various business functions.

Clearwater continues to strengthen its global servicing capabilities with "follow-the-sun" operations. To this end, a significant portion of Subi's focus will be to unite and create efficiencies among Clearwater's New Delhi, New York, London, Edinburgh, and Boise offices.

"Clearwater is making impressive strides in the financial technology space, and I am excited to join their team and lend my experience and expertise. This is an important time for company growth, transformation, and opportunity," said Subi.

"As we continue to earn and serve increasingly complex clients with global footprints, Subi will bring a tested approach to service from multiple delivery centers around the world. She is a leader with a proven track record of achieving operational excellence while continuing to focus on client success. I am excited to welcome her to Clearwater," said Sandeep Sahai, Chief Executive Officer, Clearwater Analytics.
